

Discernment By Charles Pretlow

Dare to read this challenging book that addresses disguised evil, the flamboyant, the imposter, the hypocrite, the counterfeit anointing, the false gifts and numerous false teachings that hijack the faith of so many dear saints. Learn to discern evil disguised as good and learn to be led by the Spirit to escape the coming troubles and navigate in the saint's darkest hour. Wake up now, before the midnight cry as described in Matthew 25:1-13

Jesus Warned: “Take heed, many will come in my name and lead many astray” Matthew 24:4-5. Christ also said that he would appear at the end of the Great Tribulation and then rapture the saints, not before or during that terrible time. Mark 13:24-27. Our Lord calls us to watch and pray for discernment and strength to escape all these things that will take place worldwide, to be able to stand before him at his appearance. Luke 21:25-36.

The Apostle Paul Warned: Satan disguises himself as an angel of light to deceive Christians, sending false apostles who are deceitful workers, disguising themselves as apostles of Christ. 2 Corinthians 11:12-15. Paul also warned that evil men and imposters will go from bad to worse, deceived and deceiving others. 2 Timothy 3:13.

The Apostle Peter Warned: False teachers will be amongst us, secretly bringing in destructive heresies. Many will follow them and cause the world to hate and revile the Gospel. In greed, they will exploit with false words. 2 Peter 2:1-3.
